Are you willing to take AT LEAST 2 levels of positive reinforcement basic obedience classes with your puppy?
This breed in particular is in need of basic obedience training consistently for the first 1-2 years of its life. If you do not actively stimulate their mind, they will misbehave, as they are so intelligent. Their mind needs just as much stimulation as their body. If you do not have the time or means to provide them with these foundational skills training classes, please re-evaluate your situation before committing to a breed like the PWD.
